CORE VALUES

- ❖ Selfless Service
- ❖ Respect for God, Self, Others and the whole of life
- ❖ All round development which includes moral and civic consciousness
- ❖ Innovation

About Cambridge

Cambridge learners

The Cambridge approach supports schools to develop learners who are:

- confident in working with information and ideas – their own and those of others
- responsible for themselves, responsive to and respectful of others
- reflective as learners, developing their ability to learn
- innovative and equipped for new and future challenges
- engaged intellectually and socially, and ready to make a difference in the world.

About Cambridge Secondary 1 – Checkpoint

For Grade 8

- is a test to assess learning at the end of Cambridge Secondary 1 and provide evidence of readiness for the next stage
- tests skills, knowledge and understanding of the curriculum for English, mathematics and science
- feedback reports show how a learner has performed in relation to the curriculum, their learning group, the whole school and against all learners who have taken tests in that series around the world
- tests are marked in Cambridge to provide an international benchmark of learner performance
- learners receive a statement of achievement and a diagnostic feedback report.

About St. Stanislaus

St. Stanislaus High School was founded in 1863 as an orphanage and has risen to become one of the leading educational institutions in Mumbai.

The building in its majestic green and yellow colours occupies an area of 59,556 sq. ft. It overlooks 2 playgrounds of 3555 sq. ft. each.

Thousands of students have passed through the portals of this school and wherever they are, the stamp of a Jesuit education has left an indelible mark on their lives.

The school is run by the Fathers and Brothers of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits), a religious congregation internationally known for their educational work.

About Jesuit Education

The Jesuit School aims at the integral, personal formation of the young. To accomplish this, special efforts are made to train students:

to become mature, spiritually oriented men of character to value and judiciously use their freedom to be unselfish in the service of their fellowmen and to strive after excellence in every field to be clear and firm on principles and courageous in action to become agents of the much-needed social change in their country
